

DEFINITIONS OF PURPOSE

- * “mission to perform” . . . Edgar Cayce
- * “that which gives your life a sense of fulfillment” . . . Mark Thurston
- * “what compels us to take a stand” . . . Linda Marks
- * “when you” . . ., “live and express yourself in a way that aligns you with the idea that you were born FOR something” . . . Pat Paulson, Sharon Brown and Jo Ann Wolf
- * “what gives my life meaning” . . . Jacqueline McMakin
- * “your burning driving passion” . . . Richard Bolles
- * “our positive contribution to the world and our fellow beings” . . . Shakti Gawain
- * “reassurance of our uniqueness” . . ., “sense of destination” . . ., “the energy to get started” . . . Richard Leider
- * “a cause, an aim in life that is constructive and that is so big that one has to keep working on it” . . . Dr. William C. Menninger
- * “quest” . . ., “destiny” . . ., “your calling” . . . Naomi Stephan
- * “large enough to absorb all your energy, command all your imagination, use all your resources, and impact the world in an important way”
- * “when you do or experience something that leaves you feeling deeply fulfilled and satisfied” . . . Teri-E Belf